

A scientific poster entirely written in org-mode using GNU emacs and the beamer library

Philipp Homan¹,

¹Department of Psychiatry, The Donald and Barbara Zucker School of Medicine at Northwell/Hofstra, Hempstead, NY

DONALD AND BARBARA
ZUCKER SCHOOL of MEDICINE
AT HOFSTRA/NORTHWELL

Background

- Org-mode is not only useful for producing blog posts and even scientific manuscripts; it is also perfectly suitable to produce decent looking scientific posters.
- We combine a relatively simple custom \LaTeX style file and common org-mode syntax

Methods: Part 1

Figure 1: This could be a figure.

Methods: Part 2

Figure 2: This could be another figure.

Results: Part 1

Figure 3: Another figure

Results: Part 2

L^AT_EX

Figure 4: This is another figure

L^AT_EX

Figure 5: This is the right column of this box

Conclusions

- This example shows how incredibly versatile org-mode is. One can now produce scientific posters with a text editor (preferably emacs).